

EPIC PLAYERS

EMPOWER. PERFORM. INCLUDE. CREATE.

WHO WE ARE:

EPIC Players is a nonprofit, neurodiverse theater company creating professional opportunities and inclusive community for Neurodivergent and Disabled artists. We offer free classes and paid performance opportunities in New York City, with members appearing on Broadway, Off-Broadway, and on screen. As funding for the arts and disability services faces growing cuts, EPIC's mission is more vital than ever - ensuring access, visibility, and equity in the arts.

WHY WE EXIST:

Neurodivergent and Disabled individuals are vastly underrepresented and underpaid, with only 32% of working-age individuals employed. In the arts, the gap is even wider - just 2% of roles depict Disabled characters, most portrayed by non-disabled actors. EPIC exists to change these statistics and champion true inclusion in the arts and across society.
